

[pages 185-196]

1. [The authors] agree with the New Atheists that _____ religions have been the source of sexual repression and harm. But we vehemently disagree that this criticism applies particularly to _____. (p.187 | k.1771)

2. According to Roback Morse, “Either sex is a _____, or it isn't. If it is really no big deal, then ‘unwanted sexual activity’ shouldn't be particularly _____.” (p.186 | k.1767)

3. What are three reasons God created sex? (p.187 | k.1776)

1.

2.

3.

4. Following the _____ pattern would not increase _____, as Dawkins and Harris suggest, but would clearly result in fewer _____, unwanted _____, and _____. (p.188 | k.1785)

5. Scripture condemns the _____ of sex-sexual activity expressed outside a lifelong, committed _____ between one man and one woman. (p.188 | k.1786)

6. How does oxytocin work and what does it do? (p.189 | k.1796)

[pages 185-196]

7. The _____ evidence supports the _____ view of sex: appropriate sexual _____ before marriage provide for healthy human functioning. (p.190 | k.1801)

8. What four reasons do the authors give why Christian couples have the best sex? (p.190 | k.1812)

1.

2.

3.

4.

9. What kind of sex does the “sexual revolution” promise? (p.193 | k.1836)

10. According to McIlhane and Bush, “Perhaps the most damaging philosophy about sex in recent years has been the attempt to separate _____ from the _____.” (p.194 | k.1847)

